

Expectations of coaches in G.M.A.A.

The Coach: must know, understand, and appreciate the rules of the contest.

A familiarity with the current rules of the game and the recognition of their necessity for a fair contest is essential. Good sportsmanship suggests the importance of conforming to the spirit as well as the letter of the rules

The Coach: is the person responsible for the students on the team and as such must be the positive role model to the players. Players quickly pick up negative vibes and display these to others.

The Coach: is responsible for implementing the educational mandate of the school through the chosen sport.

The Coach: must instill the qualities of good sportsmanship and fair play in his/her athletes. Athletes must be taught good sportsmanship and what it means.

The Coach: must teach and set the example of respect towards the officials, players of both teams and spectators at all times.

The Coach: must be aware of the Bylaws and Governing rules of the G.M.A.A. and be familiar with the handbook rules pertaining to that sport.
